SEE WHY FDU IS THE RIGHT CHOICE FOR YOU

Experience a Personal Approach to Education

At the Silberman College of Business, we'll meet you wherever you are. Our graduate programs are tailored to fit the lifestyle of the working professional. You'll benefit from a schedule that helps maintain your work-life balance with flex-hybrid, weeknight on campus, or fully online choices. Our caring faculty will help you develop a pathway to accomplishing your career goals and provide you with a learning experience tailored to your career and professional development. You can also get credit for what you already know and invest your time at FDU focusing on acquiring new skills and knowledge.

Gain Global Perspective

FDU is an institution of higher education “of and for the world” – of the world in the sense of being worldly and cosmopolitan; and for the world in the sense of being civic-minded. Our curriculum is designed to ensure that all of our students will succeed in a world marked by global interdependence, diversity, and rapid change. As a student here, you'll widen your perspective and unlock a world of possibilities. The location of our campuses in the New York/New Jersey area, as well as in Vancouver, British Columbia, and Wroxtton, England, places us at the center of global hubs for business and commerce. As the first university to earn

Special Consultative Status with the United Nations (UN) Economic and Social Council and Founding Member of the UN Academic Impact Program, the Silberman College of Business shares a timeless vision of producing positive impact in all the communities that we serve. Today, with a network of university alliances across the globe (including the UN), a Silberman College of Business education produces social, economic, and geographical mobility for our graduates. An emphasis on global learning includes short-term study abroad opportunities that enable you to meet and interact with fellow and senior professionals in organizations from different parts of the world.

Access Transformational Opportunities

Experiences inside and outside the classroom unlock a world of possibilities as you benefit from developing the necessary multidisciplinary, intercultural, and ethical understandings necessary to engage, lead, and prosper in the global marketplace of ideas, commerce, and culture. The experiential learning opportunities help you apply theory to practice, equipping you with the skills that will set you apart in your field. Silberman College's immersive classrooms and career-focused cocurricular activities provide you with transformational opportunities that emphasize market-based expertise that will continuously engage you in the classroom and throughout your career.
